

Financial Controller

Stavis Seafoods LLC, A Profand Company is looking for a Controller to join the finance team. The Controller is responsible for implementation and maintenance of the financial policies and internal controls of the Company.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee day-to-day financial operations and identify opportunities for process improvements.
- Manage the production of the annual budget and forecast.
- Responsible for cash management.
- Implement cost accounting system with inventory control.
- Responsible for Treasury, including bank covenants and compliance.
- Ensure that the company's internal accounting policies are in compliance with professional standards, state and federal regulatory requirements, and are documented and current.
- Analyze financial and non-financial operating data and income statements making appropriate recommendations and reporting variances.
- Analyze budget variances and report significant issues.
- Work with internal and external auditors to support financial audits and tax preparation
- Work closely with CFO on key strategic initiatives and special projects.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Accounting / Finance / CPA Preferred
- At least 7 years strong financial accounting, management and reporting experience.
- Experience in food distribution and/or manufacturing.
- Expert in MS Excel; proficiency with other MS Office applications.
- ERP experience: BC / SAP / or similar

Location:

- On-site Boston Area (1 Seafood Way, Boston, MA, 02210)

If you are enthusiastic, driven, and detail oriented, this opportunity is for you.

Please send your resume at adiaz@stavis.com